

IN CONCERT

SUNDAY JULY 19 7:00 PM

An evening of music with two acclaimed masters of guitar

John Standefer is the 2002 USA National Fingerstyle Guitar champion. He is a touring performer, recording artist, and originator of the Praise Guitar Workshop which has helped thousands of guitarists to make better music. John's styles include pop, jazz, and Brazilian.

Pat Kirtley is a recording artist, composer, touring musician, and 1995 USA National Fingerstyle Guitar champion. He has produced five acclaimed CD's, and numerous videos of his music, which is aired on nationwide media.

Share an intimate evening of music with John and Pat as they play individually and together. They will perform selections from their album "Brazilian Guitar" and a variety of styles from jazz to down home country. Don't miss this show if you love great instrumental music!
